APUS

ORDER:

In the order read above, a scheme of Automatic Advancement was introduced for the benefit of those State Government employees who are drawing pay in Revised pay Scales of 1978 falling under Grades I to XVIII other than teaching staff of the Schools, Junior and Degree Colleges who have put in ten or fifteen years of service in a scale without getting promotion to a higher posts. Keeping in view the various kinds of situations that arose in the course of implementation of this scheme, numerous clarifications and amendments to the scheme were issued from time to time.

2.It has come to the notice of the government that the Administrative Authorities have been applying the Automatic Advancement scheme and accordingly fixations were made in the scale of pay which subsequently found to be erroneous on the ground of non-eligibility of the employees as they did not fulfill the conditions stipulated in the Automatic Advancement Scheme. In such cases refixation has be done and the amounts drawn on such erroneous pay fixation, have to be recovered as the individuals are not eligible for the same.

3. The Government after careful examination of the matter hereby order that the amounts drawn by the individual due to erroneous fixation of pay in contravention of the rules applicable to the Automatic Advancement Scheme, shall be recovered in easy installments not exceeding 12 installments.

4. Accordingly the following amendment to the Government order read above is issued.

5. The amendment hereby made shall be deemed to have come into force with effect on and from the 1st April 1981 i.e. the date from which orders in G.O.. read above were given effect to.

AMENDMENT

In the said order after Para 7 the following shall be added namely:-

"8. Any amounts drawn due to erroneous fixation of pay in contravention of these rules shall be recoverable in not exceeding 12 easy installments".
