APUS

The Andhra Pradesh Non-Gazetted Officers Association in their letter third cited have represented that the pay of the employees working in the special grade/special temporary promotion posts/special adhoc promotion posts, when; promoted to higher posts in the service, is not fixed under F.R.22 (a) (i) read with F.R. (31) even though the appointment to the post involves assumption of duties and responsibilities of greater importance. They have therefore, requested that necessary clarificatory orders may be issued in the matter. Government after careful consideration hereby clarify that when employees holding special temporary promotion posts are promoted to the next promotional post under the Service rules applicable to the post they are eligible for fixation of their pay in the scale applicable to the regular promotion post under F.R.22 (a) (i) provided the conditions laid down in those rules are satisfied. Therefore in all such cases, the above instructions may be kept in view while fixing the pay in the scale of pay of the promotional post.
