A P U S

In Para 2 (iii) of the G.O. first read above, it has been ordered that where the deceased employee does not have any male child but leaves behind him/her a married daughter and unmarried minor daughter the choice of selecting one of them for appointment under the social security scheme shall be left to the spouse of the deceased.

2. In the G.O Second cited, it has been clarified that when there is only a married daughter to the deceased Government employee without older or younger brothers or sisters and the spouse of the deceased Government employee is not willing to avail the compassionate appointment such married daughter may be considered for compassionate appointment provided she is dependent on the deceased Government employee and subject to satisfying the other conditions and instructions issued on the scheme from time to time.

3. However certain cases have been referred to Government seeking clarifications for compassionate appointment of married daughter of deceased government employee, wherein the deceased Government employee leaves behind an unmarried daughter who is otherwise eligible on the date of his death and is also eligible as an unmarried daughter the day she applied for the post, but subsequently gets married in view of the administrative delay of issuing the appointment order.

4. In such cases Government hereby clarify that even in such cases where the unmarried daughter of the deceased employee who is other-wise eligible on the date of the death of the deceased Government employee and she is also eligible as an unmarried daughter the day she has applied for compassionate appointment but subsequently gets married before she could be appointed due to administrative delays in issuing the appointment employee is eligible for compassionate appointment provided she applied for the post within the prescribed time limit before her marriage and subject to satisfying other conditions and instructions issued on the scheme from time to time.
