ORDER:

In the Government order first read above, the Andhra Pradesh State Provident Fund Rules were made applicable to all the Employees of Zilla Parishads and Panchayati Samithis in the State.

2. The Subscriptions under the Provident Fund Head are however being maintained by the Zilla Parishads though they were brought under the purview of the General Provident Fund Rules, and the subscribers are not being paid interest on their balances on par with Government Employees due to slender financial position on the Panchayati Raj Bodies.

3. Consequent on the orders issued in the Government Order second read above, provincialising the services of Panchayati Raj Employees, Government have examined the question of enhancement of the transfer of the General Provident Fund balances now available in Zilla Parishads to the Government account and issue the following orders:

i) The contributions to their General Provident Fund Accounts of the Panchayati Raj employees whose services have been provincialised shall be credited to the Government account under the following head of account with effect from the pay of June payable in July, 1984 as the deposits of Zilla Parishads

"838 - Deposits of Local Funds.

MN-020-Deposits of other autonomous bodies.

SH-01 - Deposits of Zilla Parishads out of Provident Fund contributions of Panchayati Raj employees.

ii) The balances available in the current accounts of the Panchayati Raj

Institutions in the banks shall be withdrawn and credited to Government account.

iii) The investments out of the contributions made in various banks or securities shall be withdrawn as and when matured and shall be credited to the Government account under the above said head of account.

iv) The Zilla Parishads shall maintain the individual accounts as is being done now till alternative arrangement is made.

v) The Zilla Parishads shall be empowered to draw and disburse General Provident Fund advances from the balances of the individuals and also for final payment of General Provident Fund amounts to the employees under the above said head of accounts after pre-audit by the audit officers of the Local Fund Audit Department.

vi) The District Treasuries shall maintain the deposit accounts on the same way they are maintaining the accounts of the Panchayati Raj Bodies and Municipalities, Any drawal from this deposit accounts shall be subject to balance available in the accounts.

vii) The Zilla Parishads shall workout the interest payable on the balances credited to Government account at the rate as applicable to General Provident Fund balances of Government servants and furnish to the Audit Officers of the Local Fund Audit Department who in turn will scrutinize the admissibility and correctness of the interest payable and the Audit Officer shall consolidate total interest payable on the balances and send proposals of Finance & Planning (Finance Budget) Department for providing the amounts towards interest in the next year's budget.

4. The Accountant General, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad is requested to issue immediate instructions to all District Treasury Officers to open the accounts in the Treasuries as per the above orders.

5. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance and Planning (FW) Dept, vide their U.O.No. 20749-C/338/W&M-I/84, dated 13-7-1984.
