ORDER :

In the Government Order 2nd read above. Government had issued orders enhancing the rates of profession tax with effect from 01-08-1996. The Associations of State Government Employees had represented to the Hon'ble Chief Minister for the postponement of the recovery of profession tax at the enhanced rates by one month. After carefully considering the representations of the employees Associations, Government had ordered postponement by one month of recovery of profession tax at the enhanced rates from the salaries of the employees for the month of October, 1996, payable in November, 1996. It was also ordered therein that orders for the recovery of arrears of tax for the months of August, September and October, 1996, being the difference between the enhanced rates and pre-enhanced rates, would be issued separately.

2. Government, after careful consideration, hereby order that the arrears of tax for the months of August, September & October, 1996 shall be recovered in three equal installments from the salaries of November, 1996, December, 1996 and January, 1997 respectively in addition to the regular recovery of tax at the enhanced rates from the salaries of the employees for these months.

3. Where the profession tax had already been recovered at the enhanced rates from the salaries of employees for the months of August and September 1996, the arrears of tax for the month of October, 1996 only shall be recovered from the salaries for the month of November, 1996, along with the tax payable for the month.

4. In case of employees retiring in November 1996, Government hereby order that the arrears of tax for the months of August, September and October, 1996 shall be recovered in one go from the salary for the month of November, 1996. For the employees retiring in December, 1996 the arrears of tax for the month of August, 1996 shall be recovered from the salary for November, 1996 and the arrears in respect of September and October, 1996 shall be recovered from the salary for the month of December, 1996.
