ORDER:

Through the Government Order seventh read above the limit of encashment of Earned Leave/Privileged leave in a calendar year was increased from 15 days to 30 days. These orders were however kept in abeyance through the Government orders eighth and ninth read above. Government have once again examined the whole question fresh and after careful consideration have decided to allow all regular Government servants to surrender Earned Leave/Privilege Leave, if at credit, not exceeding thirty days during the calendar year 1983 and receive cash value therefore. In this connection the following instructions are issued: -

i) The facility to surrender the Earned Leave/Privilege Leave for 30 days is available for the calendar year 1983 only. From the calendar year 1984 onwards, the position which obtained before the issue of the order seventh read above shall come into force.

(ii) if any Government servants have already enjoyed the benefit of surrender of 30 days earned leave/privilege leave during the year 1983, he shall not be eligible for any more encashment during this year.

(iii) If a Government servant has enjoyed the surrender of 15 days Earned Leave/privilege Leave during the year 1983, he may be allowed to encash leave for a further period of 15 days (if entitled).

(iv) A certificate issued by the sanctioning authority, to the effect that the Government Servant has not been sanctioned any encashment of Earned Leave/privilege Leave during the Calendar year, 1983 or that he was sanctioned encashment of earned leave/privilege Leave for 15days only, should be attached to the bill.

Action may be taken accordingly.

(BY ORDER AND IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR OF ANDHRA PRADESH)

D.SANKARAGURUSWAMY,
Secretary to Government.
